

Black River Audubon Society Hog Island Scholarship Application, 2024

This scholarship provides for full room, board, tuition, and a $600 travel stipend to attend the Audubon Camp at Hog Island, Maine.

Reservations have been made for the Sharing Nature: and Educator's Week camp July 14 to 19 but other camps are also possible if available. Descriptions of the camps can be reviewed at hogisland.audubon.org. All applicants must read and indicate below that they agree with the COVID-19 Camp Guidelines page on the website.

1. Name _____ Date _____
- Address _____
- E-mail Address _____
- Occupation & Employer _____
- If teacher, what grade(s) and subjects _____
- Phone Numbers Home _____ Work _____
- Will you consider becoming a Black River Audubon Society member? _____

By signing below, you agree you are vaccinated for COVID-19 and will adhere, if selected for the scholarship, to the COVID-19 Camp Guidelines as spelled out in the hogisland.audubon.org website.

Your signature _____ Date _____

2. Which camp do you wish to attend?

Sharing Nature: An Educator's Week (July 14-19) _____

Another camp (Please state the name and dates) _____

3. Please answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

How will you use this experience to further environmental understanding in the community, your school, or the Black River Audubon chapter?

4. Please send two recommendations from occupational or academic sources: Ask them to describe their professional relationship AND respond to the following statement:

"I recommend the applicant's request for a Black River Audubon Society Hog Island scholarship for the following reasons:"

5. Send this application and recommendations by February 16, 2024, to blackriveraudubon@gmail.com or to Black River Audubon Society, P.O. Box 33, Elyria, OH 44036

If you have questions related to the application process, call Charlie Weil at 440-864-1617 or send an email to him at the above address.